Goals of Gender Budgeting

1. To raise awareness among stakeholders of gender issues and impacts embedded in budgets and policies.
2. To make government accountable for translating their gender equality commitments into budgetary commitments to gender equality.
3. To change budgets and policies to promote gender equality.
4. To form women’s groups for the purpose of self development and education and for the indefinite service of others.
5. To help them realise that the future of India lies in their hands, for as wives and mothers they have the task of training and guiding and forming the character of the future rulers of India.
6. To make women aware of their responsibility as daughters of India.

Objective of the study

1. To examine the position of women in Haryana.
2. To show the brief profile of expenditure under plan in Haryana.
3. To examine Haryana’s budgetary allocation for gender development in recent year.
4. To assess the impact of gender budgeting on improving the status of women.