OBJECTIVES OF THE STUDY

The purpose of the present study is to conduct the intensive field work as per the specially designed set of village and household questionnaires to collect the first hand information and data from the selected sample villages representing all development blocks of the study region.

The objectives of the present study is to understand and study the dimension of Tribal transformation i.e. natural environment, socio-economic cultural and economic environment of the Tribal and non tribal areas of the study region. The main objectives of the study are:

1) To identify and evaluate the physical environment of the region;
2) To assess the existing resources related to tribal people life;
3) To study the demographic characteristics of tribal people;
4) To examine the relationship between environment and tribal communities in the region;
5) To analyse the spatial patterns of habitat, economy and society of tribal Communities;
6) To study various problems faced by tribal people and to suggest the possible Measures for the socio-economic upliftment of Scheduled Tribal's;
7) To find out the change in traditional pattern of farming and other occupations due to the various Govt. schem
8) To evaluate the role of developmental program in the transformation of tribal People;
9) To gauge the process of tribal development programmers and rural development Programmers being initiated in the region;
10) To study the transformation of agricultural and other allied activities:
11) To analyze the role and impact of non-agricultural activities transforming the Region.