METHODOLOGY :-

Parents, teachers, students and educational officers in Municipal Corporation in Yavatmal District will be subject of the study. The survey method will be applied to do research. Interviews and survey method will be conducted for the purpose of the study.

Experimental Design :-

Teachers, students, parents and educational officers will be the part of study. Fifty students from each class will be randomly selected for questionnaire. The separate questionnaire will be given to each class. Students from standard IV to X will be selected for the purpose of study. Interviews and questionnaire will also be conducted for teachers, parents and educational officers in Yavatmal District.

SCOPE :

1) The present study may help the research students to study the structure of educational administration of Municipal Corporation.

2) The study may lead the Government to take necessary steps to develop corporation schools.

3) The study may also help the teachers who work in corporation schools to find out their faults and to correct and improve them.

UTILITY:-

The study will help educational officer to implement new scheme in corporation schools. The study will also be helpful as guideline to run the administration smoothly.

TOOLS:- Interview will arrange the teacher, headmasters and quaternary will be conducted by the student for the purpose of study

STATISTICAL TECHNIQUE: - In the present studies the following statistical calculations will be done:

1. Median
2. Standard Deviation
3. Mode
4. T-value
The researcher will analysis and interpret the data collected from corporation schools, teachers, officials etc. and the further statistical analysis will be made to prepare the percentile norms. Statistical method will be used to interpret data and to take mode and mean.

CONCLUSION
Conclusion will be arrived at and suggestions and recommendation for improvement will be given if needed.

1. In corporation schools of Yavatmal district the Government scheme like Mid-Day meal didn’t attract parents to send their children.
2. To School’s educational administration didn’t conduct orientation programmes for the teachers to improve their teaching skills.
3. Computer facilities were not provided in the corporation schools.
4. Educational administration didn’t observe the schools, classes, vacant posts of teachers were not filled to avoid student’s educational loss.