Research Method:

The researcher proposes to commence research work after scanning through the published literature on the subject. The researcher proposes to use survey method.

Data Collection Method

Questionnaire will be used as tool for data collection. Primary data will be collected personal interview, observation and by collecting the opinion through questionnaire.