Objectives of the study

The major objectives of this proposed study are:

1. To check the adherence of corporate governance by companies listed in BSE.
2. To study the working of audit committee in the corporate units of India.
3. To study the investor grievances committee and nomination committee in the corporate units working in India.
4. To study the working of the whistle blower policy in the corporate units of India.
5. To study whether the retail investor are aware of the concept of corporate governance.
6. To study whether corporate governance in India is a factor affecting the investment decisions of retail investors in India.