Objectives:

• To develop an inventory model for Inventory system with stock & time dependent demand, permissible delay in payments under inflation.

• To study supply chain inventory models for deteriorating items with the effects of backlogging.

• To develop and analysis of model with deterioration. Demand will be taken as stock dependent.

• To study the economic order quantity model for deteriorating items when delay in payments is permissible.