Hypothesis:

The present project is based upon the hypothesis that absurdity, self-identification and human interrelationship are the main concerns in the fictional works of Samuel Beckett. It tries to explore Samuel Beckett as not only a great dramatist but also a great novelist in the history of English Literature.