INTRODUCTION

Education is most important for all human beings. It is nothing but the development of the whole man, formation of character, all round development of child, all round drawing out of the best complete development and for this of individuality etc. Children go to educational institution where teacher make them perfect they teach to children efficiently and good try to develop the characteristics among them. Teaching is the complex art of guiding students through a variety of selected inexperiences towards the attainment of appropriate teaching learning goals.

Teaching is a form of interpersonal influence aimed at changing the behavior potential of another person. it is an intimate contact between a more mature personality the education of the latter interaction means participation of both teacher and students and both are benefited by this.

The interaction takes place for achieving desired objectives teaching include the training of emotions of the child. it is one of the means giving right feeling to children. The teacher is not an instruction or task master he is a helper and guide. The distinction that reserves this principal for the teaching of adolescent and adult minds and denies its application to the child is a conservation and in intelligent doctrine.

Teachers are continually in contact with their students. A teacher spends most of the school day in close association with his students and as a result his behavior has a great influence on them.

"Teaching" as success signifies the idea that learning is implicated in teaching this implication is suggested by the hyphenated expression teaching learning. Teaching may not logically implicate learning. It can be anticipated that it will result in learning.

A teacher may not succeed but he or she is expected to try to teach successfully without having positive or favorable attitude towards teaching profession a teacher can't do his or her work efficiently and if he does not have favorable attitude then if pupil teachers have favorable attitude good teaching aptitude then he/she can teach students successfully.
Teaching is an important part of the process of education its special function to import knowledge, develop understanding and skill. It is a relationship which is established among then points in education. Child or man, girl or boy, there is only one sound principle of good teaching difference of age only selves to diminish or increase, it does not change its nature.

The true teacher is one he who can immediately come down to the level of the student. Teaching is a vocation filled with the excitement of helping children, discover themselves and the full range of their capabilities. It is a serious of events where in teacher attempts to change the behaviour of students along the intended direction. Education change depends on what teachers think and do the entire process of teaching learning transaction depends on the efficiency of a teacher. It is a positively direction action for which teacher are to be endowed with teaching competency.

Children learn much of their behaviour pattern by copying others and having role model upon whom to base the way they behave. Hence, behaviour of the teacher is important outside as well as inside the class room.

Training teacher institute provide training to the pupil teacher and make them perfect. The teacher, the student and the subject matter. In this process teacher bring the student and the subject matter together. It is the complex art of guiding student through a variety of selected experienced towards the attainment of appropriate goals.

Teaching is very much an art which is to say, it call for exercise of talent and relativity. Teaching neates learning situations it should motivate the child to learn it turns the children into creative beings. Teacher gives information and explains it, diagnose the learning problems make curricular material evaluate, record and report. Teaching is a profession. To perform his duties well, a teacher should understand teaching in the true spirit and he can do it when he has favourable, aptitude and attitude aptitude towards teaching.