Hypothesis

1. Emotionally matured adolescents would be high on extraversion that is personality trait than the emotionally immature adolescents.
2. Emotionally matured adolescents would be high on openness to experience that is personally trait than the emotionally immature adolescent.
3. Emotionally matured adolescents would be high on agreeableness that is personality traits than the emotionally immature adolescent.
4. Emotionally matured adolescents would be high on conscientiousness that is personality traits than the emotionally immature adolescent.
5. Emotionally matured adolescent would be low on neuroticism that is personality traits than the emotionally immature adolescents.
6. Emotionally matured adolescents would be low on introversion that is personality traits than the emotionally immature adolescents.
7. Internet addicted adolescents would be low on extraversion than the internet non-addicted adolescents.
8. Internet addicted adolescents would be low on openness to experience that is personality traits than the internet non addicted adolescents.
9. Internet addicted adolescents would be low on agreeableness, a personality traits than the Internet non addicted adolescents.
10. Internet addicted adolescents would be low on conscientiousness a personality than the internet non addicted adolescents.
11. The internet addicted adolescents would be high on neuroticism than the internet non addicted adolescents.
12. The Internet addicted adolescents would be high on introversion than the internet non addicted adolescents.
13. There would be interaction between internet addicted adolescents and emotional maturity of adolescents.
14. There would be interaction between adolescents of internet non addicted and emotional maturity of adolescents.