OBJECTIVES

1. To measure the magnitude of depression or Anxiety or both in parent of congenital neuro-developmental disorder such as LD / ADHD / ID / Autism.

2. To compare the difference of magnitude of Depression and Anxiety or both among parents of younger children compared to parents of older children with disorder.

3. To identify whether any difference exists in presence of depression Anxiety or both between Primary caregivers being male or female.

4. To differentiate depression or anxiety or both among primary caregiver of two different socio-economic demographic (SEC A, B & C).