OBJECTIVES

1] To assess the existing knowledge of substance abuse and quality of life among high school children of selected schools in Mangalore before the interventions.

2] To design and develop an educational awareness program on substance abuse and quality of life.

3] To implement the educational awareness program on substance abuse and quality of life among high school children from selected schools in Mangalore.

4] To determine the effectiveness of the educational awareness program on substance abuse and quality of life among high school children after the interventions.

5] To compare the posttest scores with pretest scores of behavioural outcome regarding substance abuse and quality of life among high school children.

6] To find out the association of behavioural outcome regarding substance abuse and quality of life of high school children with selected demographic variables.

7] To make recommendations on the basis of results of effective implementation of the educational awareness program.